FCRA	Overseas	2014-2015	751904	Literacy Program for Poor Children (ILP): Bihar is one of the most illiterate states in India (63.82%), consistently underperforming against the national average (74%). The national averages for Scheduled Castes is even lower (54.69%), while the Mushar community the literacy rates as low as 6.88%. In the villages of Bihar in general, there are absenteeism in schools due to migratory lifestyle in the agricultural communities, underfunded programs are being run haphazardly by unqualified volunte

FCRA	Overseas	2013-2014	701518	Right to Education Program: India is home to 19% of the world's children. What this means is that India has the world's largest number of youngsters, which is largely beneficial, especially as compared to countries like China, which has an ageing population. The not-so-good news is that India also has one-third of the world's illiterate population. In order to curb rising unemployment in Bihar and bringing poor .
